SUBJECT: INTERIM REPORT: SPAIN'S ATTENDEES FOR 63RD UN
GENERAL ASSEMBLY

REF: STATE 72078

¶1. (SBU) Poloff submitted reftel request to Spain's UN
Subdirector General Juan Manuel Gonzalez de Linares on July ¶7. As of July 31, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs does not yet have definite plans or itineraries for UNGA participants.
The following information, however, has been confirmed.

¶A. Attendance of Head of Government

-- Jose Luis Rodriguez Zapatero, President, will attend the High Level meeting on Millennium Development Goals on September 25 and will address the General Assembly during the general debate, sometime between September 23 and 26.

-- Interpretation from English to Spanish will be required.

¶B. Attendance of the Foreign Minister

-- Miguel Angel Moratinos, Minister of Foreign Affairs and Cooperation, will also attend the general debate.

-- No interpretation is needed for FM Moratinos.

¶C. Other VIP's

-- Trinidad Jimenez, Secretary of State for IberoAmerican Affairs, will attend the General Assembly, as well as the Latin American Working Group meeting.

-- Interpretation from English to Spanish is required.

¶2. (SBU) Post will continue to update with specific itineraries and participants as plans develop. Based upon last year's list of attendees, post anticipates the attendance of approximately 5 others, which may include the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, Secretary of State for International Cooperation, and Chief of Staff personnel.
